Judy K Boyce (1956-2016) was a dedicated volunteer to the Festival at Mt Si and long-serving on the Festival Committee. For over ten years, Judy volunteered with the Festival and many other Snoqualmie Valley organizations. Judy always followed through with what she said she would do, and took pride and satisfaction in serving her community. Judy was dedicated to helping make her community a better place for everyone. Working hard to make sure events were successful, Judy was an example to all of us on how to see a task through to the end.
